

S T i L L A L i C E

A novel by Lisa Genova

GALVESTON READS 2012

Still Alice is the story of a fifty year-old professor of neuropsychology at Harvard University who is diagnosed with early-onset Alzheimer's disease. Lisa Genova's New York Times best-selling novel follows an accomplished woman slowly losing her thoughts and memories to a harrowing disease, only to discover that each day brings new ways of living and loving.

*All events free and open to the public!
Refreshments served.*

Programs Schedule:

Professors Panel Discussion

Tuesday, January 17, 7:00 pm
Rosenberg Library

Movie Night: Away From Her

Thursday January 26, 7:00 pm
Texas A&M, Galveston

Embracing Aging, Photographers to Speak

Saturday January 28, 6:00 pm
Rosenberg Library during Art Walk

Medical Forum

Thursday February 23, 6:00 pm
UTMB, Levin Hall

Author's Visit

Tuesday, March 6, 7:00 pm
Galveston College

Photography Exhibit: Embracing Aging

January-March, Monday-Saturday 9:00-6:00
Rosenberg Library, Harris Gallery

Book Discussions:

January 9	6:30 pm	Moody Methodist
January 11	12 Noon	Rosenberg Library
January 12	7:00 pm	Hitchcock Library
January 14	10:00 am	Moody Methodist
January 19	7:00 pm	Mod Coffee & Tea
January 25	6:00 pm	Mosquito Café
February 2	6:00 pm	First Presbyterian
February 7	7:00 pm	Texas A&M
February 8	7:00 pm	U.U. Fellowship

Author's Visit

Lisa Genova will speak
Tuesday, March 6:

Levin Hall, UTMB
Winter Series Lecture
5:00 pm

Galveston College
7:00 pm

Sponsors

Rosenberg Library ★ Friends of Rosenberg Library ★ Kempner Fund ★ Sealy Center on Aging
University of Texas Medical Branch ★ UTMB Department of Family Medicine ★ Galveston College
Texas A&M Galveston ★ Inn at the Waterpark ★ Walmart ★ Moody Gardens

For further information and addresses please visit galvestonreads.org